I wish I could spend some time    in mount Vernon

G                                    bm    C    G
On the banks of the Potomac riva

G                    bm                    C                    G
Imagine the parties and late night dancing

G                                    bm                    C                    G    bm    C    G
Or some time with TJ, writing the declaration

G                    bm                    C                    G
Jump on your horseback and ride down a trail

G                    bm                    C                    G
Drop in and party    with GW himself

bm    C                    G                    bm    C    G

G                    bm                    C                    G                                    bm    C    G
Could you imagine writing all those documents that set our precedent

G                    bm                    C                                    G    bm    C    G
To be enforced by us beyond 200 years

C                                    D                    C                    D
How can we can forget it all    all this done with risk

C                    bm                    G                    bm    C    G
Who would be the president

G                                    bm                    C                                    G                                    bm                    C                    G
The wigs were funny but not as funny as we    The wigs were cool guys I say to thee

am                    C                                    G                    em
But you can't laugh at them    laugh at yourself

am                                    C                                    G                    bm    C    G    bm    C    G
Laugh at the old U S    in the year two thousand twelve
